

Embert P. Madison, Jr. Attorney

Embert P. Madison, Jr.'s practice focuses on the areas of public law, real estate and land use, and political law. Prior to joining the Churchwell White LLP team, Embert spent several years at the state Capitol. This previous experience with the California Legislature, created a natural transition to working with cities, counties and special districts.

During his time at the Capitol, Embert toed the political ropes staffing taxation, health, and employment issues while working at the Capitol for a California Assembly Member. He also gained unique legal experience working as counsel for the Legislature at the Office of Legislative Counsel (OLC). Embert's practice areas at the OLC included taxation (income and sales and use taxation), public contracting, and state and local government.

While in law school, Embert served as a Judicial Extern for the Honorable John A. Mendez at the United State District Court, Eastern District. During this time, he diversified his experience reviewing civil rights claims, employment matters and federal rules of court. He also worked for Chairman Emeritus of the California Board of Equalization, Jerome E. Horton, analyzing tax appeal cases. Embert was an active participant on campus as President of the Black Law Student's Association, and as a member of Moot Court, Real Estate Club and the UC Davis School of Law Business Law Journal.

When he is not working, Embert enjoys learning about real estate markets and being active by biking or playing basketball. He is a lifelong Lakers enthusiast.
